

Rational Publication Open Access Policies

At Rational Publication, our purpose is providing peer-reviewed, unbiased information to promote technological advancement for the benefit of society. To achieve this aim, all the journals of Rational publication offers the author(s) with a choice of open access for publication of their articles.

Open Access

By Open Access, it means the articles published are freely available to the readers where everyone can read and download them without fees in perpetuity. Rational Publication offers Green and Gold Open Access publishing choices.

Green Open Access

Green open Access at Rational Publication means the 'Accepted Manuscript'^{1} can be archived on the authors' personal or departmental WebPages, repositories, databases, social media, and academic social networks like Mendeley, ResearchGate, Academia etc., after an embargo period of 6 months of publication.. Charges are mentioned on the Instructions to Authors WebPage of the journals', respectively.*

What about the Copyright?

The Article's copyright will be conferred on the Author. By signing the copyright form which will be sent to the author upon acceptance of the manuscript, the author warrants that the article is the original work of the Author and neither has it been published previously, nor is under consideration elsewhere for publication, and it does not contain any unlawful or false statements, and not in any respect violate the rights of others.

Also, the author agree to indemnify Rational Publication for, and hold Rational Publication harmless from, any liability, loss, expense or damage occasioned by any claim or suit by a third party for copyright infringement or otherwise arising out of any breach of the foregoing warranties as a result of publication of the article as aforesaid.

While submitting the form upon acceptance of the article by Rational Publication the author will be given the option to select from the two Creative Commons licenses:

- a) CC-BY: Creative Commons Attribution License 4.0 "This license lets others distribute, remix, tweak, and build upon your work, even commercially, as long as they credit you for the original creation. This is the most accommodating of licenses offered. Recommended for maximum dissemination and use of licensed materials" as stated by Creative Commons Website.
- b) CC-BY-NC-ND: Creation Commons Attribution-NonCommercial-NoDerivatives License 4.0 "This license is the most restrictive of the six main licenses, only allowing others to download your works and share them with others as long as

- a) Author's Original: Manuscript as submitted by author before peer review.
- b) Accepted Manuscript: Manuscript submitted by author that has been through peer review but copyediting, typesetting or metadata are yet to be applied.

they credit you, but they can't change them in any way or use them commercially" as stated by Creative Commons Website.

Gold Open Access:

Rational Publication helps the author to get their articles published that best suits their preferences or their funding requirements. This means that if the author wants to share the "Publisher Version" of the article online, immediately after publication they can publish with Gold Open Access model of publication.

Gold Open Access at Rational Publication means that the Article Publishing Charges(APC) are paid by the author, or the funding agency, or the institution after the article has been accepted for publication. After the article has been published it can be shared by the author on personal or departmental webpages, repositories, databases, social media, and academic social networks right after publication. The APCs are mentioned on the Journal's Instructions to Authors webpage.

Copyright :

In Gold Open Access model of publication Author (s) retain the copyright of their work. Also, while submitting the copyright form upon acceptance, the author will be given the choice to select from the 'Creative Common licenses' which ensures the authors can choose how others re-use their research work.

Please note that if the author is posting the 'Publisher Version of Record (VoR)^{2} of the article on any website or repository, he must acknowledge the journal as the original source of publication (by citing the link to journal website and its DOI) in the form of a full citation. Also, the author(s) must not post the PDF of the publisher VOR anywhere else except it has been published as open access .*

^{2*} Publisher Version of Record: Finished article that has been copyedited, typeset or metadata applied.
